FITNESS THAT BRINGS Hope

12 Buckets helps local children to flourish regardless of their background or circumstance. Tailored one-to-one mentoring is the core element for helping local at-risk children build stronger futures through 12 Buckets.

Without charging schools and with no Government funding, 12 Buckets brings practical hope to children. It costs $1,200 per year to mentor a child and our target for 2017 is to sponsor 250 kids.

Join our giant Pilates class and empower 6 students!
